

We believe that absolutely nobody is so damaged, wounded or hurting that Jesus cannot bring them to a place of freedom and wholeness.

Church leaders know that but are often at a loss as to how to begin to help someone who seems to be really hurting and not getting better.

We firmly believe that there is a way to help people who are on the fringe of the Church community, unable to participate fully in the life of the Body of Christ because of pain or disadvantage. But all concerned may need some encouragement and support with a little guidance.

That is where we come in.

We can offer some faith building teaching that will enable you to convert your good intentions into a practical application of Jesus' claims that the truth will set us free.

We can:

- Speak to ministry and pastoral groups
- Offer training one on one
- Work with your church in helping an identified individual
- Do church-wide workshops
- Lead area workshops
